

“A Sign

A Catholic Response to the Reality of our World Today

As we reflect on the reality of division in our world, we might be tempted to insulate ourselves and do nothing. But Pope Francis urges us as Catholics to read “the signs of our times” and to respond with Christian action. Our faith calls us to move beyond fear and division and to live with the reality of the Incarnation deep in our hearts. Through prayer, song, interactive learning and sacrament, we will explore the signs of our times in the light of our faith. We will explore how we can become a sign, in our time, of the reign of God.
