

Andrew & Terri Lyke

An insightful book by Andrew and Terri Lyke

"Andrew and Terri, you are being prophetic and powerful. You are creating a conversation that is long overdue. Marriage On A Lampstand is a powerful piece of truth."

Joseph A. Brown, SJ
Southern Illinois University

"Marriage On A Lampstand is a must-read book for all parish staffs and family life directors. Andrew and Terri Lyke generously share a wealth of stories and insights gleaned from their decades of ministry and their own long marriage. Their suggestions for developing marriage ministry, while applicable for all married couples, is especially insightful for ministering with African-American couples."

Frank P. Hannigan
Marriage and Family educator and
Former Director of Marriage &
Family Ministries
Archdiocese of Chicago

"Terri and Andrew lovingly share their experiences, insights and wisdom so that Christian Marriages excel as a shining symbol of God's love in our homes, our communities, and the Church. In Marriage On A Lampstand, they graciously serve as teachers, mentors, and guides to those seeking to place God at the Center of Marriage."

Deacon James Norman
Our Lady of Sorrows Basilica
Archdiocese of Chicago

"The new paradigm we advocate for marriage is not so new. Yet it is fresh and grounded in the spiritual life of community. It is also very African; in that it defines the 'I' in the 'We' and places the success of marriage also in the hands of the village and not just the hands of the couple. Yes, it is the couple who say 'Amen' to a daring promise. But, they can't do it alone, and they shouldn't have to. The church/village must also say 'Amen' to the promises made. The necessary wisdom, tenacity, and faith to live out those promises are in the community. Mutual lines of accountability between the couple and the village protect the couple from the slings and arrows of the modern world that make success in marriage fleeting. This fresh approach to marriage takes the couple out of isolation and places them in the protective custody of the village." (p. 173).

Heavenly Light Press

Order your book at the cost of $15 + S&H

Buy Now

Visit our www.marriageonalampstand.com to preview the book, view a video introduction by the authors, and arrange to host a book-signing event.